Dedication

Director of the music department of Le Roy High School, Mr. Lane has proven himself not only a helpful counselor and hard worker but also a warm friend to the many members of the class of '56 who have come to know him personally. Although he is perpetually busy with our bands and choruses, he has always managed to find time to lend a helping hand or a word of advice to our class and its members. He has a gift for making us see the lighter side of problems, and working with him or for him has always seemed more play than drudgery.

We will not soon forget his helpful advice, humor, and eagerness to aid us, and so, with deep pride and fond memories of the years behind us, we dedicate this O-AT-KAN of 1956 to Mr. William T. Lane.

Recognition

Marian A. Russell

There are so many significant jobs in our school upon which one's attention is focused that we sometimes forget the important "behind-the-scenes" toil without which Le Roy High would cease to function. It is for this reason that we wish to single out Mrs. Marian A. Russell and express our gratitude for the hours of work in which, for most of us, only the results are obvious. The class of '56 realizes it is such people that make Le Roy the great school it is.

Richard C. Fitch

The class of 1956 takes pleasure in expressing its appreciation to Mr. Richard C. Fitch for the fine job he has done during this, his first year as principal of Le Roy High. We feel that our senior year has been more enjoyable for his being here and we respect him for the capable way he has taken over the manifold responsibilities of his position. The class of '56 wishes Mr. Fitch continued success in his career at Le Roy High School.

Charles D. Graney, M. D.

In Memoriam

The death of Dr. Charles D. Graney in March of 1956 was a great loss felt by both the Le Roy Central Schools and the community at large. During thirty of the fifty-three years he practiced medicine in Le Roy, Dr. Graney was a member of the Board of Education and for eight years he served as its president. In addition he was school physician for twenty-seven years.

Foreword

Everyone has heard it said in his history classes many times, "We live in an era of change." Any student at L. H. S. can readily see this in our new equipment, a far cry from our school 10 years ago.

With this fact in mind the O-AT-KAN editors at their first meeting adopted the slogan, "It's time for a change." The yearbooks of the past were rigid little pieces of literature following a strict form—but not any more.

If at first you're a little confused take heart: you probably have lots of company. We editors of the O-AT-KAN have not cut loose from tradition without reason though, and a quick study of the table of contents will give you a seasonal guide through this school year.

The Board of Education

The men on this page comprise our Board of Education. At the right, top to bottom is Mr. Sidney D. O'Shea, president; Mr. Ralph Jenner; Mr. Arthur O. Symonds; Mr. Harris Mackenzie. At the left are Mr. Lester A. Proctor, clerk; Mr. Clarence A. Lapp and Mr. Almeron Wilcox. These men have served terms varying from three to twenty years. They form a cross section of our community life, since they represent in themselves farmers, merchants, builders and business executives. Mr. Jenner, Mr. Symonds and Mr. Wilcox serve as president, treasurer and clerk respectively of the Woodward Memorial Library Board.

It is our pleasure to salute these men who give their time and ability freely to our school system. Their interest in and endeavor for the public good is to their credit and should receive from all of us proper recognition and intelligent co-operation.

DONALD E. HORR, Ed. D.

Superintendent of Schools

Dear Class of 1956:

Congratulations on the completion of a major step forward in your education and in your life. In a short time you will be alumni of Le Roy High School ready to take your places as adults in our community life. We have tried to prepare you well so that you can take a place in this adult life and be a contributing member to our society. I would urge you to keep in mind in whatever you do the motto of your Alma Mater—Semper Nostra Optima—“Always Our Best.”

Mrs. Ruth Jay is the girls' physical education instructor at the Wolcott Street School, and keeps herself occupied directing the physical activity of the younger girls. She attended Brockport State Teachers' College where she was awarded the Bachelor of Science degree. She has been with us for two years, having previously taught at Irondequoit. Mrs. Jay has made lasting friendships among the students here and many will miss her when she leaves teaching this year.

Mrs. Casey is interrupted while Gary waits for resumption of treatment.

Medical and Dental

Le Roy is very fortunate in the medical and dental facilities that are available to us throughout the school year. A complete dental hygiene department, consisting of a dental hygienist and nurses' office in the Wolcott Street School provides us with the opportunity to prevent illness and with the equipment to treat minor ailments.

Mrs. Casey serves as the dental hygienist for the Le Roy School District. She is in charge over our dental hygiene from the time we enter kindergarten until we leave at graduation.

Miss Smith's place of business is in the Wolcott Street School where she can better keep an eye on the accident-prone grade schoolers. Here she assists the school physician in giving physical exams, and inoculations. In addition she performs the ordinary first aid tasks that are the lot of a school nurse.

The school physician is chosen from among the village physicians on a rotating basis. To Dr. Emil Knaid has fallen this special task of guarding our health this year, although many of the other doctors have contributed their time and talents. Dr. Knaid is by now well-known by all our athletes and each student in school has met him through the medium of a physical examination.

Dr. Knaid listens to Ed's heart beat as part of the annual physical examination ritual.

HORACE B. MYERS, Principal of the Grade School

Wolcott Street School Head

Blessed is the man who does not despise the wicked, but who is patient with them,
 and who does not scorn them.
 For he is in the will of the Lord and will be blessed and made fruitful.
 Like a tree which bears its fruit in its season,
 and its leaves do not wither,
 all that he does, he prospers.
 The wicked are not so,
 but are like chaff which the wind drives away.
 Therefore the wicked will not stand nor sinners in the congregation;
 for the Lord knows the way of the righteous,
 but the way of the wicked will perish.

MISS DRAYO

Mr. Myers' girl Friday is Miss Rachel Drayo whose duty it is to assist in the smooth operation of the Wolcott Street School. The Catkan owes a special tribute to her for the work which she does each year in handling grade school subscriptions and payments.

Art

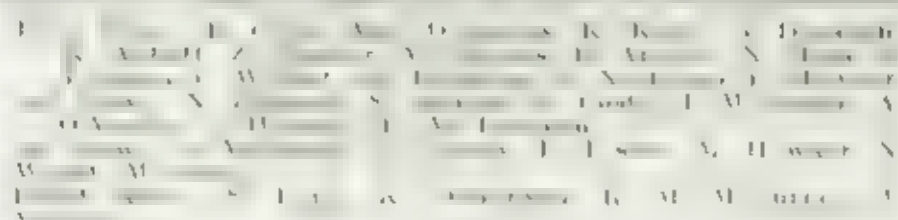

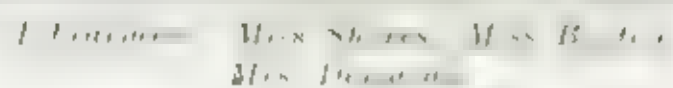

The pursuit of art is an important part of the education of young people. Miss Marilyn Richards is responsible for this phase of the grade schoolers' education and teaches them self expression through a large variety of media. We regret that she is leaving this year and wish her luck in her other artistic endeavor - music.

Music

For many years the teaching of music in the grade school has been in the capable hands of Miss Ethel Erickson and the success of our high school musical organizations is due, in no small part, to the foundation which she has laid in junior band and the Wolcott Street School choir. In addition, Miss Erickson has assisted in the presentation of the annual operetta.

Junior Varsity

Coach Salvatore Barone's junior varsity team started the season in a state of affairs on junior varsity teams. Hours of practice and patient handling by Mr. Barone and Mr. Marlow, his assistant, molded this raw material into a team fit to represent this football-minded school. Still unsure of themselves, the squad lost the opening game to Dansville in a thriller which saw Dansville score the only touchdown with time running out. Improving, they held a tough Caldonia team to a 0-0 tie. This game seemed to give the team a boost. They won a game against Medina, by one touchdown, and Irondequoit, 19-6. Sandwiched between them was a practice session facing of Batavia. Two games — Brighton and Webster — were cancelled when the weather became too bad for even football. Many of these boys we shall see next year, upholding Le Roy's traditions on the varsity squad.

THE CHEERLEADERS OF THE 1950-51 SEASON

The Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders of the 1950-51 season were a group of eight girls who were chosen by the faculty and the student body. They were all members of the cheerleading squad and were responsible for leading the school spirit during the year. The Majorettes

There are few things more exciting in the game than the sight of a marching band performing a big intricate maneuver—and led by a group of stepping majorettes, batons twirling, marching to perfect rhythm. For Miss Moran and her group of seven majorettes—led by Donna Dravo and Major Donald Antmore—was the credit of presiding

A portion of that collection. In addition to their duties on the football field, this group of students leads the band on all occasions when it marches in public, thus improving the local community on such holidays as Memorial Day and the Fourth of July.

The National Honor Society

"Therefore, believing in knowledge, character service and leadership, I rejoice in the obligation which membership in this National Honor Society places upon me, and I shall do my best to fulfill its spirit and purpose," repeated the new members of the Honor Society as they received their membership. A fitting reward for three years of outstanding contributions to their school and their community.

In May of last year six juniors were selected by a faculty committee to form the nucleus of the National Honor Society for the year 1955-56. These were: Wilma Anderson, Jack Carroll, Josephine Lannello, Roger Lapp, Judy Landslev and Jerry Spiller. Later Judy was elected president; Jerry vice-president; Josie, secretary; and Jack treasurer.

In November of this school year seven additional members were selected to bring the membership up to its full compliment, 15% of the senior class. These new members were Suzanne Crocker, David Frost, Don Nielson, Jerry Patti, Sonja Rae Schmelzle and Sylvia Scott.

The activities of the honor society this year included a trip to Rochester to see "The King and I" and dinner at The Copper Kettle early in the year, and later on a ringside seat at the Arena Theatre for the play "Anastasia". In addition a successful drive was carried on to send $50 to CARF for the relief program in Korea.

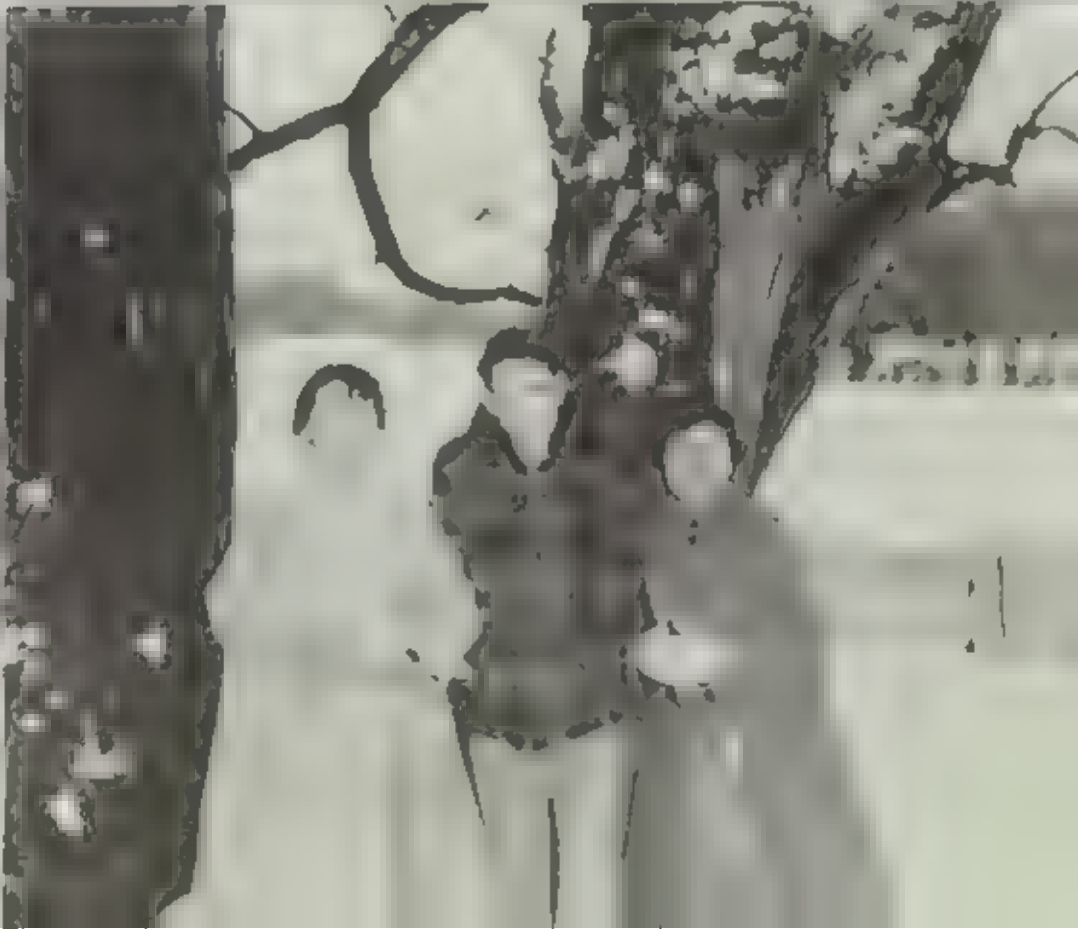

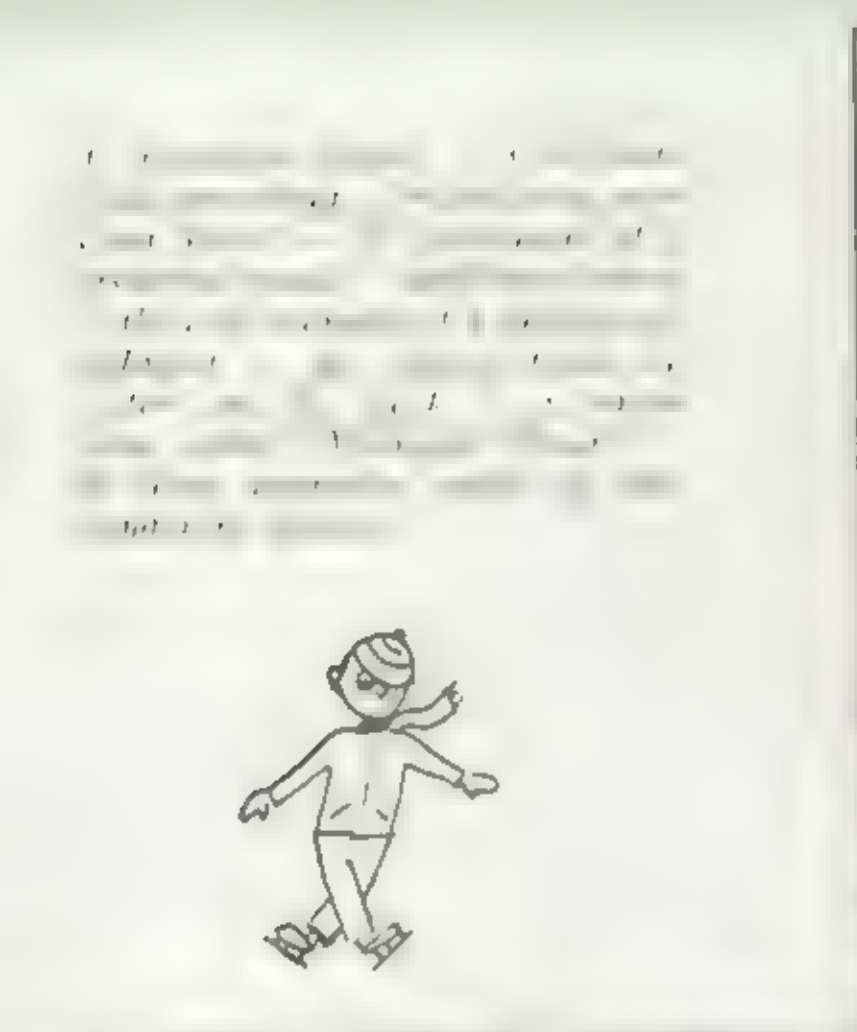

Jerry Spiller (left) in addition to being vice-president of the Honor Society is the class Valedictorian with an average of 94.6. Judy Landslev, Secretary, is the Salutatorian with an average of 92.1.

David Scott and Peter Stefani are industrious in shop. They seem certain to make a dash in this particular project.

A steady hand and intense concentration are among the ingredients necessary in this seventh grade art class. Water colors are one of the media the girls become acquainted with.

The Eighth Grade

This year the eighth grade has prospered well under the capable leadership of James Wood, class president. Accompanying him were Robert Fussell as vice president, Diana Wirsing as secretary, and Christine Grancy as treasurer.

It was on October 21, 1955, that the eighth grade held a skating party which was open to the whole

Homeroom representatives for the first semester were as follows: Ellen Perkins for Miss Harrold's homeroom, Richard Mogavero for Mrs. McCarthy's homeroom, and Larry Boylan for Mrs. Wadsworth's homeroom. Second semester representatives were Ellen Perkins for Miss Harrold's homeroom, Richard Mogavero for Mrs. McCarthy's homeroom, and Barbara Airth for Mrs. Wadsworth's homeroom. Representative-at-large for the year was Joanne Merica.

A record dance, sponsored by the Class of 1900 was held on the 7th of January.

Larry Boylan took the responsibility of m. c. for the Junior High Talent Show held this year. Many other eighth graders participated in the talent show.

with singing and dancing acts. Without the able help and advice of Mr. Rudman, Mr. Taber, Miss DeVoe, and Mrs. Wadsworth, the show would never have been the huge success it was.

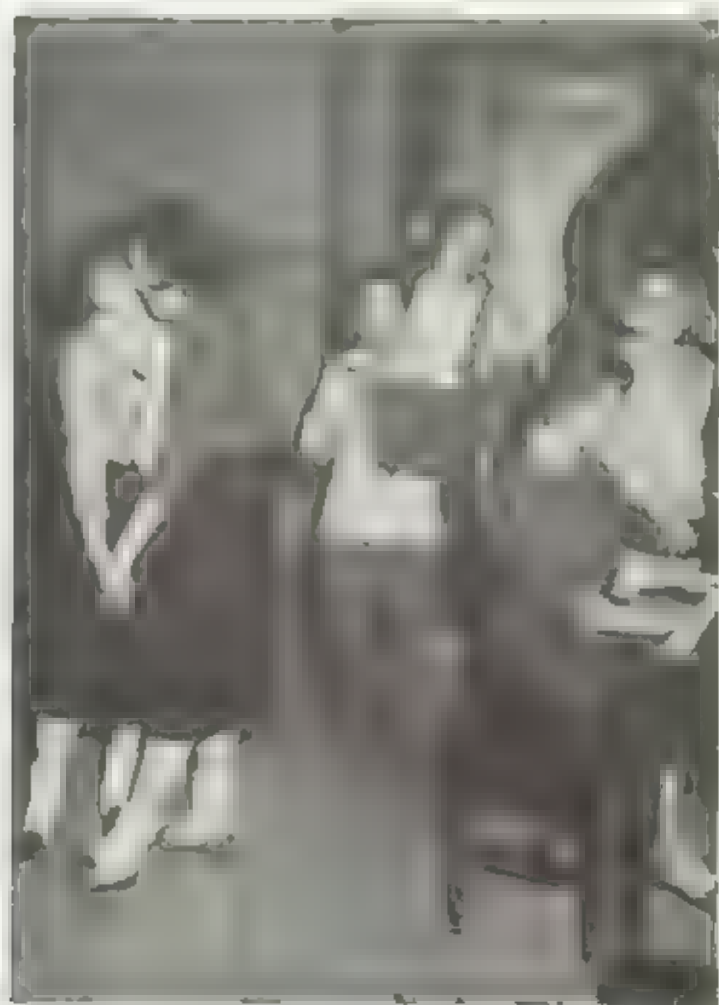

Introduced this year for the first time was a basketball team composed of 7th and 8th graders. Cheerleaders for these enthusiastic basketball players were Christine Granev, Bonnie Drysdale, Diana Mastin, Diane Wirsing, Barbara Arth, Donna Lamendola, and Sandra O'Geen.

In the campaign assembly, Richard Mogavero made a big hit with the whole student body, including Mr. Bell, when he appeared portraying Mr. Bell. Other eighth graders also participated in the campaign assembly to make it a success. Not only did Richard Mogavero ably entertain us, he also walked away with first prize in this year's spelling bee.

On May 18, the class of 1940 held another open skating party. A good time was had by all who attended. The 8th grade then held a parent's night which included an exhibition of gymnastics.

The eighth grade looks forward to four profitable years of high school.

The highlight of the season for the ninth graders was a dance named "The Chimney Sweep" held before Christmas vacation. These are members of the Decoration Committee.

The Red and Black

It was with considerable surprise that we read on the front page of the daily newspapers this spring that "The Red and Black" did not win a Pulitzer prize this year. Surely the judges must have been biased. But prize or no prize the school newspaper, monthly or bi-monthly, finances determining, continued to grind out all the news of L. C. Under the leadership of Pauline Argam and business manager Jerry Aiken the financed and prepared each issue of the paper or partially financed it. As this goes to press we are engaged in a Teen Age Campaign which we hope will move the "Red and Black" from the red to the black.

The Concert Band

With three-eighths of the band seats left vacant in the fall by members of the 1955 graduating class, our new band was in a rather green state. But with the patient guidance and instruction of Mr. [redacted] and Mr. [redacted], and the help of the better bands in Genesee County,

The first responsibility of the band in the fall is to give their much needed support to our Oatkan Knights. This, however, was not the only activity considered. Performing before the P. L. A. members at the December concert for their Christmas and Spring Concerts

Intermediate Band

Mrs. Moore and young students

The fact that the size of an individual does not determine his or her possibilities is proven by these youngsters. The intermediate band made up of grade school and junior high students taking instrumental lessons, is to be praised. Under supervision of Mr. Lane, they are preparing themselves for the next few years and entrance into senior band. Some have already attained such precision that they might well belong at present.

Intermediate activities include appearances in both Christmas and Spring Concerts. Several times a year it performs before the grade school during assemblies. These students are expected to attend weekly lessons given by Mr. Lane, Mrs. Moore, or an approved private teacher. This group rehearses a minimum of one hour per week. Playing music at their level of achievement in the band is considered as part of their work.

The Oatkannaires

This year was one of triumph for the Oatkanares because they were able to buy the long-awaited choir robes. In order to pay for them, chorus members worked diligently on the many chorus activities. These included a well presented operetta, a successful dance, and the annual Christmas and Easter concerts.

Mr. Lane, our learned instructor, prepared the chorus for the County Music Festival with this fine selection of music: the tunes from "Oklahoma", Fred Waring's "All the Things You Are", "Jesu, Word of God", and "Our Master Hath a Garden"

This year was again a first for making a school record of the more popular school verses, cheers, and some songs sung by the club members. These too were sold to help pay for the picturesque red and black robes.

Junior Chorus

B. Drysdale R. Cull C. Grimes

The Junior Chorus is the junior high equivalent of the Glee Club, a group of approximately sixty seventh and eighth graders who are studying the fundamentals of voice music. Under the direction of Mr. Lane, this choral group performs in only two of the concerts given before the public, the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert; but the members do participate in weekly rehearsals. This is the group from which Mr. Lane will draw replacements as members of the high school choruses are lost through graduation. Thus their early training is of considerable importance to the school's music department.

The Oatkan Knights

After a fair start of four wins and three losses, Le Roy went on to win five straight games, showing to Oakfield 56 - 46. With the season over, a good season, they quickly recovered to beat Medina and Notre Dame before losing to Batavia in the final game. A record of eleven wins and five losses ended one of the best seasons in years. But hold on! By beating Albion twice and Oakfield once, we went to the sectionals. This year we just lost to Albion by a basket and came out on the short end of the stick with Painted Post. This year we lost three games during our play and two during the season. This year we won three games by one point and one by two points. Leithner was high scorer for the season with 219 points. Talbot and Paladino were tied for second with 163 points.

The BAA

The Boys' Athletic Association is composed of all the boys in High School, and elected officers: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary.

The purpose of the BAA is to check the accounts and receipts of the Athletic Association which consists of all intramural and intermural sports. The money earned from such activities is spent by the BAA in purchasing new equipment for the various sports.

Some of this money is spent for the officials, bus drivers for out of town games, and the many other expenses which are incurred.

For the combined BAA and GAA, there was an exhibition on April 5th, which consisted of gymnastics on the parallel bars, the buck, and the horse; tumbling featuring various stunts such as the front and back flip, headstand, hand stand, and pyramid. The climax of the night was a very rare dancing exhibition.

BAA officers for this year were: President, Joseph Charles Frank; Vice President, Roger Rogers; Secretary, Frederick Mangroff; Treasurer, David Frost. Faculty advisor is Mr. Raymond L.

The G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association is composed of all the girls in high school. Those who actively participate in sports obtain awards based on the number of points earned: numerals, 175; shield, 300; letter, 500; gold key 725.

This year archery and speed-a-way were added to the usual sports of soccer, field hockey, bowling, tennis, basketball, volleyball, badminton and softball. Two clubs were also started this year. The Folk Dance Club and The Officials Club.

GAA OFFICERS. L. Langdon, J. J. Langdon, J. J. Langdon, J. J. Langdon, J. J. Langdon, J. J. Langdon, J. J. Langdon.

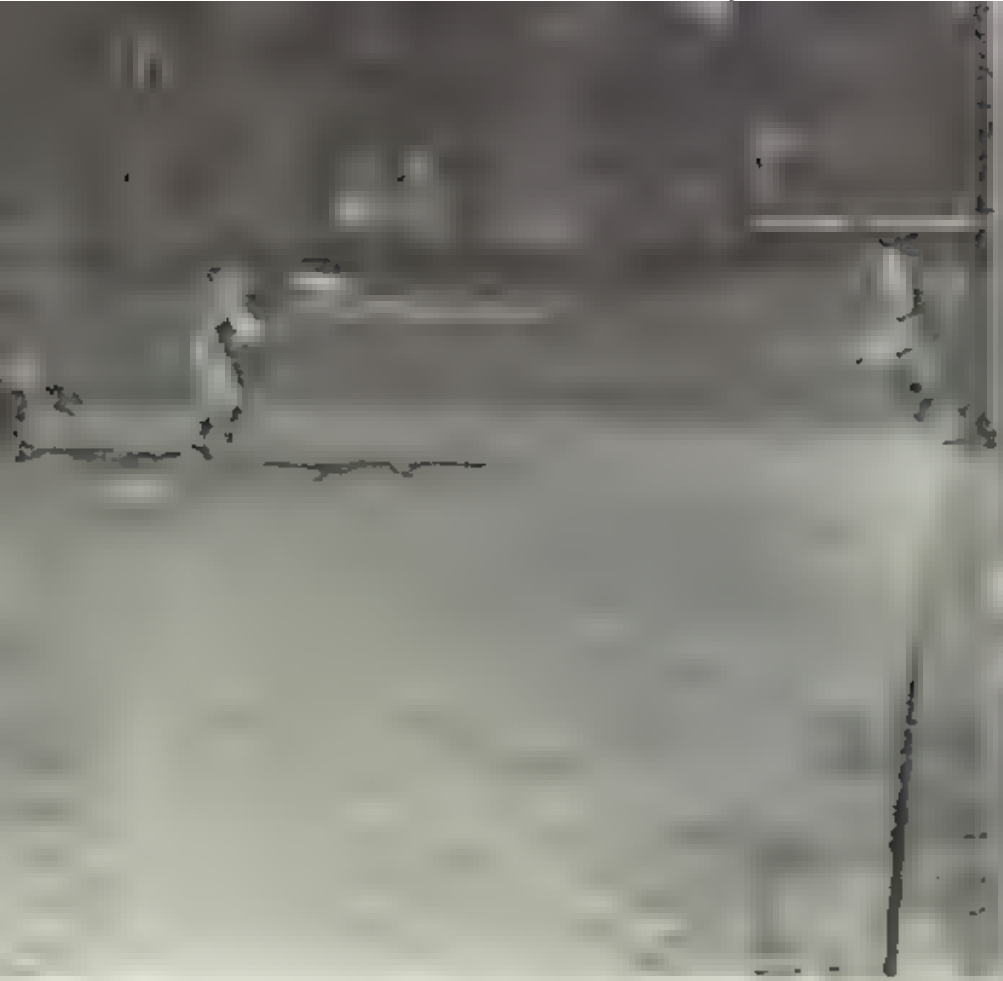

Other activities were a skating party, bowling, model swimming party, June dinner, and active participation in the Fair County Association. The latter includes sports days and invitation games in swimming, basketball, bowling, volleyball, badminton, track and softball.

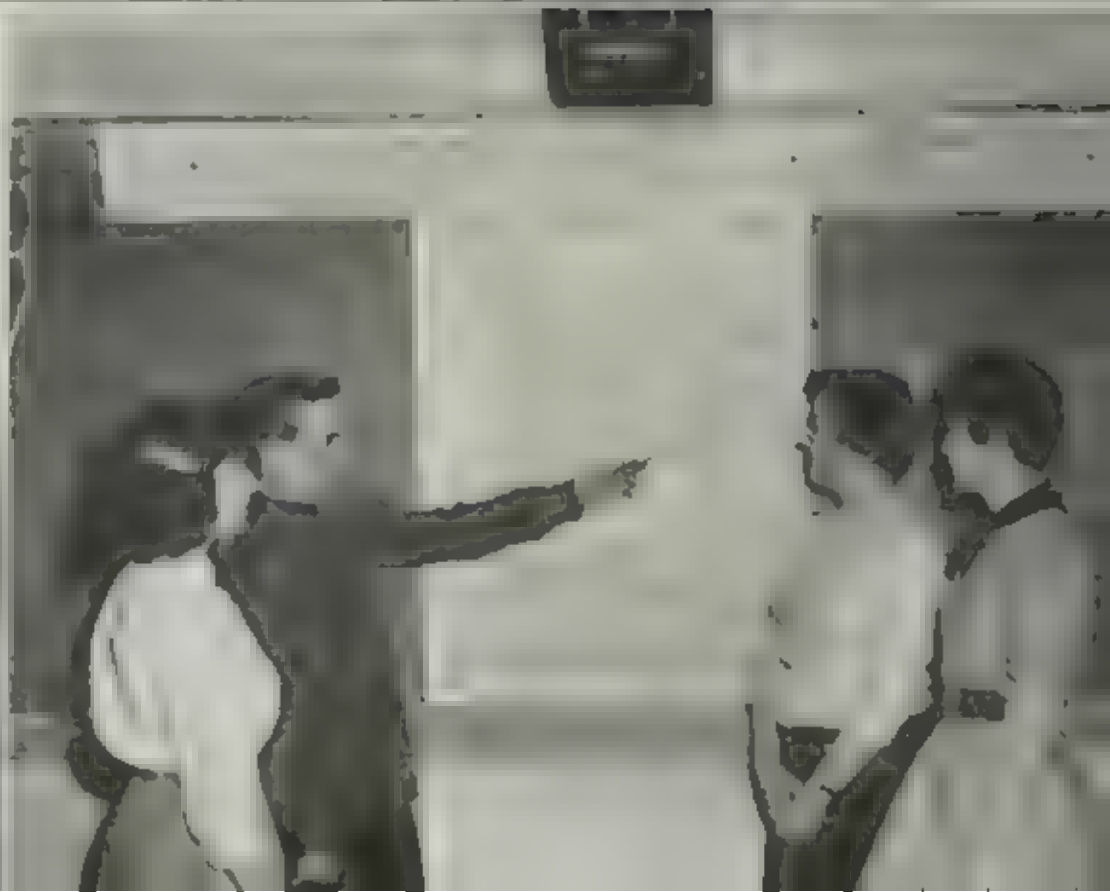

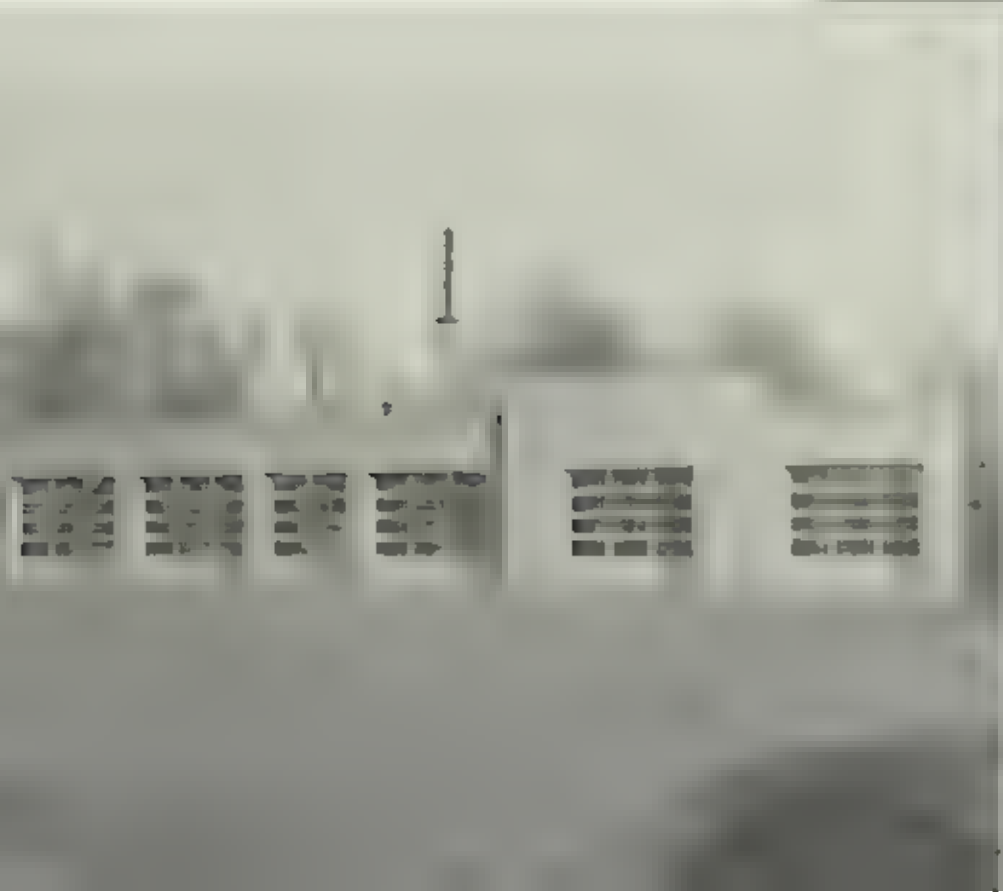

SPRING

I have a very special place in my heart for the people who have helped me through my difficult times. I am grateful for their love and support.

The Sophomore class chose for its officers Doug Fiero, president; Carol Kramet, vice president; Shirley Pfaff, secretary and Lee Cravatta, treasurer.

Many members of our group participated in basketball, baseball, football, track and tumbling. Everyone remembers Bobby Dedman and Ted Thorn making a basket to carry our cheers in on Johnny Tompkins and Joe Antmore out on the football field. Rodney Steverson and Donny Vickers showed their skills in tumbling. Many of our team members belonged to the various musical associations. Yes, the class of '58 showed that they could certainly attain a goal. We're looking forward to next year's activities.

The principal activity of the sophomores, at least from the point of view of time consumption, was the selling of sandwiches, ice cream and hot drinks at the basketball games.

As a decorating committee for the "Shogbells" dance, the class's highly successful December event, makes preliminary arrangements for transforming a utilitarian gymnasium into a winter wonderland.

proceeds received from a record dance which we held in April.

June was a busy month. We sponsored the annual ballet recital, June 1 and 2. This took a lot of hard work by all of the crew and once again the voyage was completed without any casualties. Last year the Class of '56" started something new. It was the giving of a commencement dance for the Seniors. To carry on this fine idea, the Class of '57" held a dance on June 9. We can't forget to mention the tree that we helped the seniors purchase to plant in front of the school. Wow! This has been a busy year. We plan on having the list of activities grow longer by the time we graduate.

Elected to carry the burden of leadership in the Junior Year were David Griffith, President; Nancy Hockett, Secretary; Allan Cohen, Vice-President and Carol Nicholson, Treasurer.

The Junior Prom, held this year on November '3, is always one of the high points of the schoolyear. This one was no exception. The winners of the annual contest for king and queen of the prom were Larry Reid and Sandra Baker.

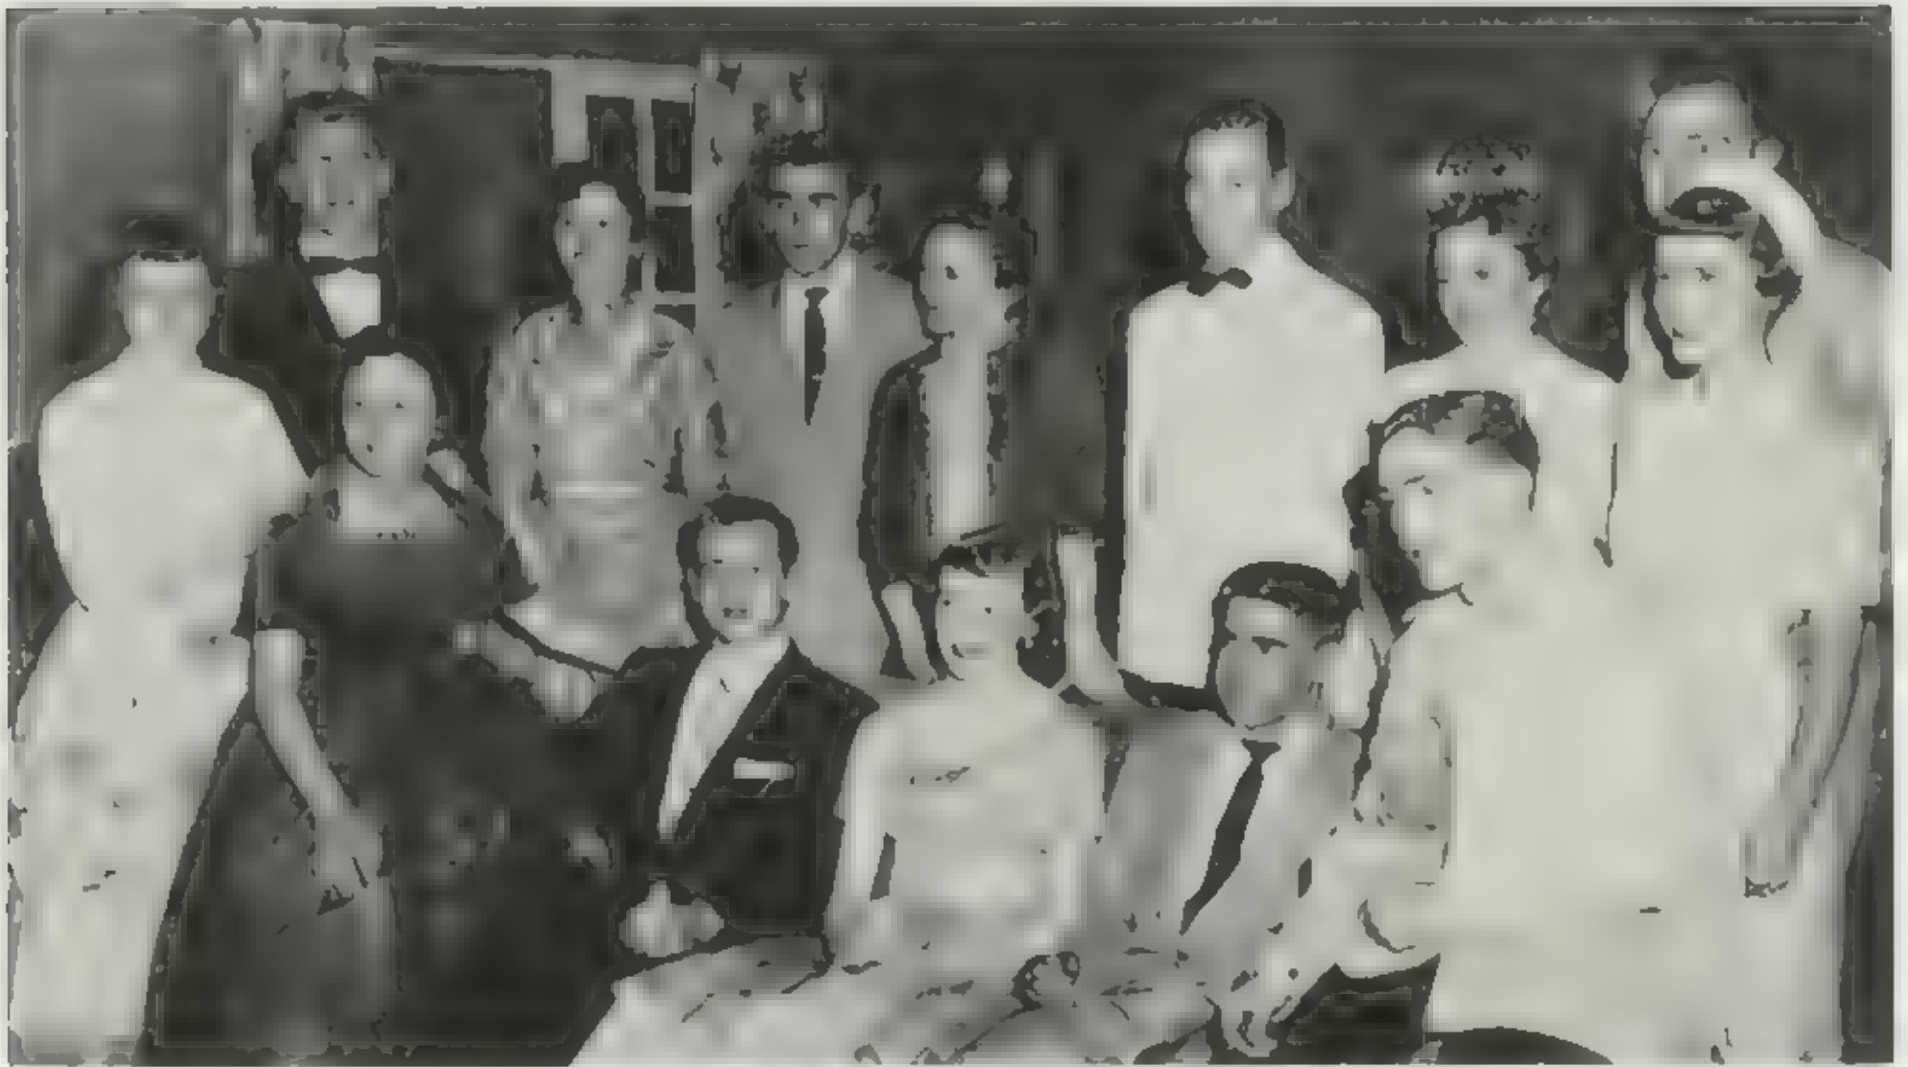

At no time do any juniors work more seriously than do those candidates for Student Council officers during election time. Here the six candidates—Sandra Baker, Bill Grancy, Kitsie Jenner, Allan Cohen, Carol Nicholson and Dave Griffith rest between rounds.

Senior Play

The tryouts for the cast of "June Mad," were held after school in the lower section of the library. After several days Miss Shores, the play's director, released the results to the anxious seniors: Josephine Iannello was to be Penny Wood, the leading lady and Donald Nielson was cast as Chuck Harris, the leading male. The cast was completed as follows: Donna Dravo as Milly Lou, Jane Mooney as Mrs. Wood, Francis Matthews as Dr. Wood, Lawrence Hyde as Elmer Tuttle, Sonia Rae Schmitt as Ellie, William Boyd as G. Mervyn Roberts, Jerome Spiller as Roger Van Vleck, Jerome Patti as Mr. Harris, Julie Rashko as Julie Harris and Kermit Roth and Pat Bennetti as Ralph and Shirley Wentworth. Nancy Durney was the very competent bookholder and filled in for cast members at many a rehearsal.

Miss Shores called the first rehearsal for the following Monday night, and thus the senior's production of "June Mad" was under way. Rehearsals went smoothly for four weeks. Then doom descended as Josie Iannello developed a skin disorder and Jerry Spiller a virus infection, keeping them from several rehearsals. Miss Shores had tense moments wondering whether to postpone the comedy or go ahead with the schedule. She chose the latter and rehearsals resumed their smooth pace as both absentees were returned to the cast.

"June Mad", by Ryerson and Clements, presented problems vital to youth in an intelligent and sympathetic manner.

The story concerns Penny Wood and Chuck Harris, the boy next door, as they go about the frequently difficult but amusing business of growing up.

When Penny's Uncle Mervyn, only five years older than she, brings Roger Van Vleck, a senior and killer-diller, home from college, she forgets to be a man-hater and succumbs to an attack of cat love which is ten degrees worse than measles. In her efforts to make herself attractive to the fascinating Roger, she almost disrupts two families, but the discovery that Roger is double crossing Mervyn by trying to steal his girl, brings her back to normal, and, incidentally, to Chuck.

Approximately 1,200 people attended the two performances, and all enjoyed the efforts of the cast and its director, Miss Shores. At the close of the second performance, the cast presented Miss Shores with a bouquet of roses, and each usher awarded a corsage to the individual actresses, after which the curtain closed with a tremendous burst of applause from the audience.

The Student Council consists of the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and all of the members of the council. These members are made up of six members from each class. Each class has equal representation, making the total thirty-six. These members are elected at the beginning of each school year by each of the respective classes. Every class activity must be approved by a majority of the student council before it can go into effect. The privilege of voting is confined only to the members, but any student may attend the meeting and present his viewpoints.

This year's officers: President, Joseph Charles Frank, vice president, Josephine Lannello, secretary, Sonia Rae Schmeltzle, and treasurer, Jerry Patto. The president and vice president are elected in the spring of the previous year. However, they do not take office until the following year. The system of electing these officers is similar to the one used by our national government. In the latter part of March two conventions are held to choose the candidates for the election. The entire student body is divided equally with half going to the gymnasium and the other half going to the auditorium. The candidates for nomination who will have already been signed up are also divided into each convention. From each of these conventions will be picked a presidential and a vice presidential candidate. The candidates for nomination this year were: Federalist, David Griffith, and Carol Nicholson; Nationalist, Allen Cohen and Katsie Jenner; and Independent, Bill Graney and Sandra R. For the next week candidates campaign within the school for their offices. The final bit of campaigning will come in the assembly which is held the day before the election. At the election the voting is done on the town voting machine and the results are held for the publication of the Red and Black. The winning candidates were Allen Cohen and Carol Nicholson.

Six members of the Student Council take a very active part in the Genesee County Student Council. They are Joe Frank, Josephine Lannello, Sonia Rae Schmeltzle, David Frost, David Griffith and Doug Piero. They exchange with various schools and get different ideas on how to better our Student Council.

The major portion of the photographs for the yearbook were taken, developed and printed by Jerry Spiller under the guidance of Mrs. Russell

One of the major events of the senior year is the posing for senior portraits, taken by a photographer from the Varden Studios.

Subscriptions and advertisements proved to us that there is a lot more to selling than just saying, "gimme."

Well, enough said. Look through your O-at-kan. If you like it or, heaven forbid, if you don't, tell next year's staff; they can use your suggestions, but don't call us; we've gone on to bigger and better boo boos.

The Executive Staff would like to take this opportunity to thank their fellow seniors who worked so long under our lash. Special thanks to the rest of the staff Pauline Argana, Phoebe Call, Suzanne Crocker, Josie Iannello, Don Nielson, Sonja Schmeltzle, Sylvia Scott, Nola Sheffer and Judy Shepard.

Bouquets too for Ruth Shanks who did the art work, Wilma Anderson who carved the lineloma prints and Nancy Durney who typed the final version of the O-At-Kan from beginning to end.

The Varsity Sluggers

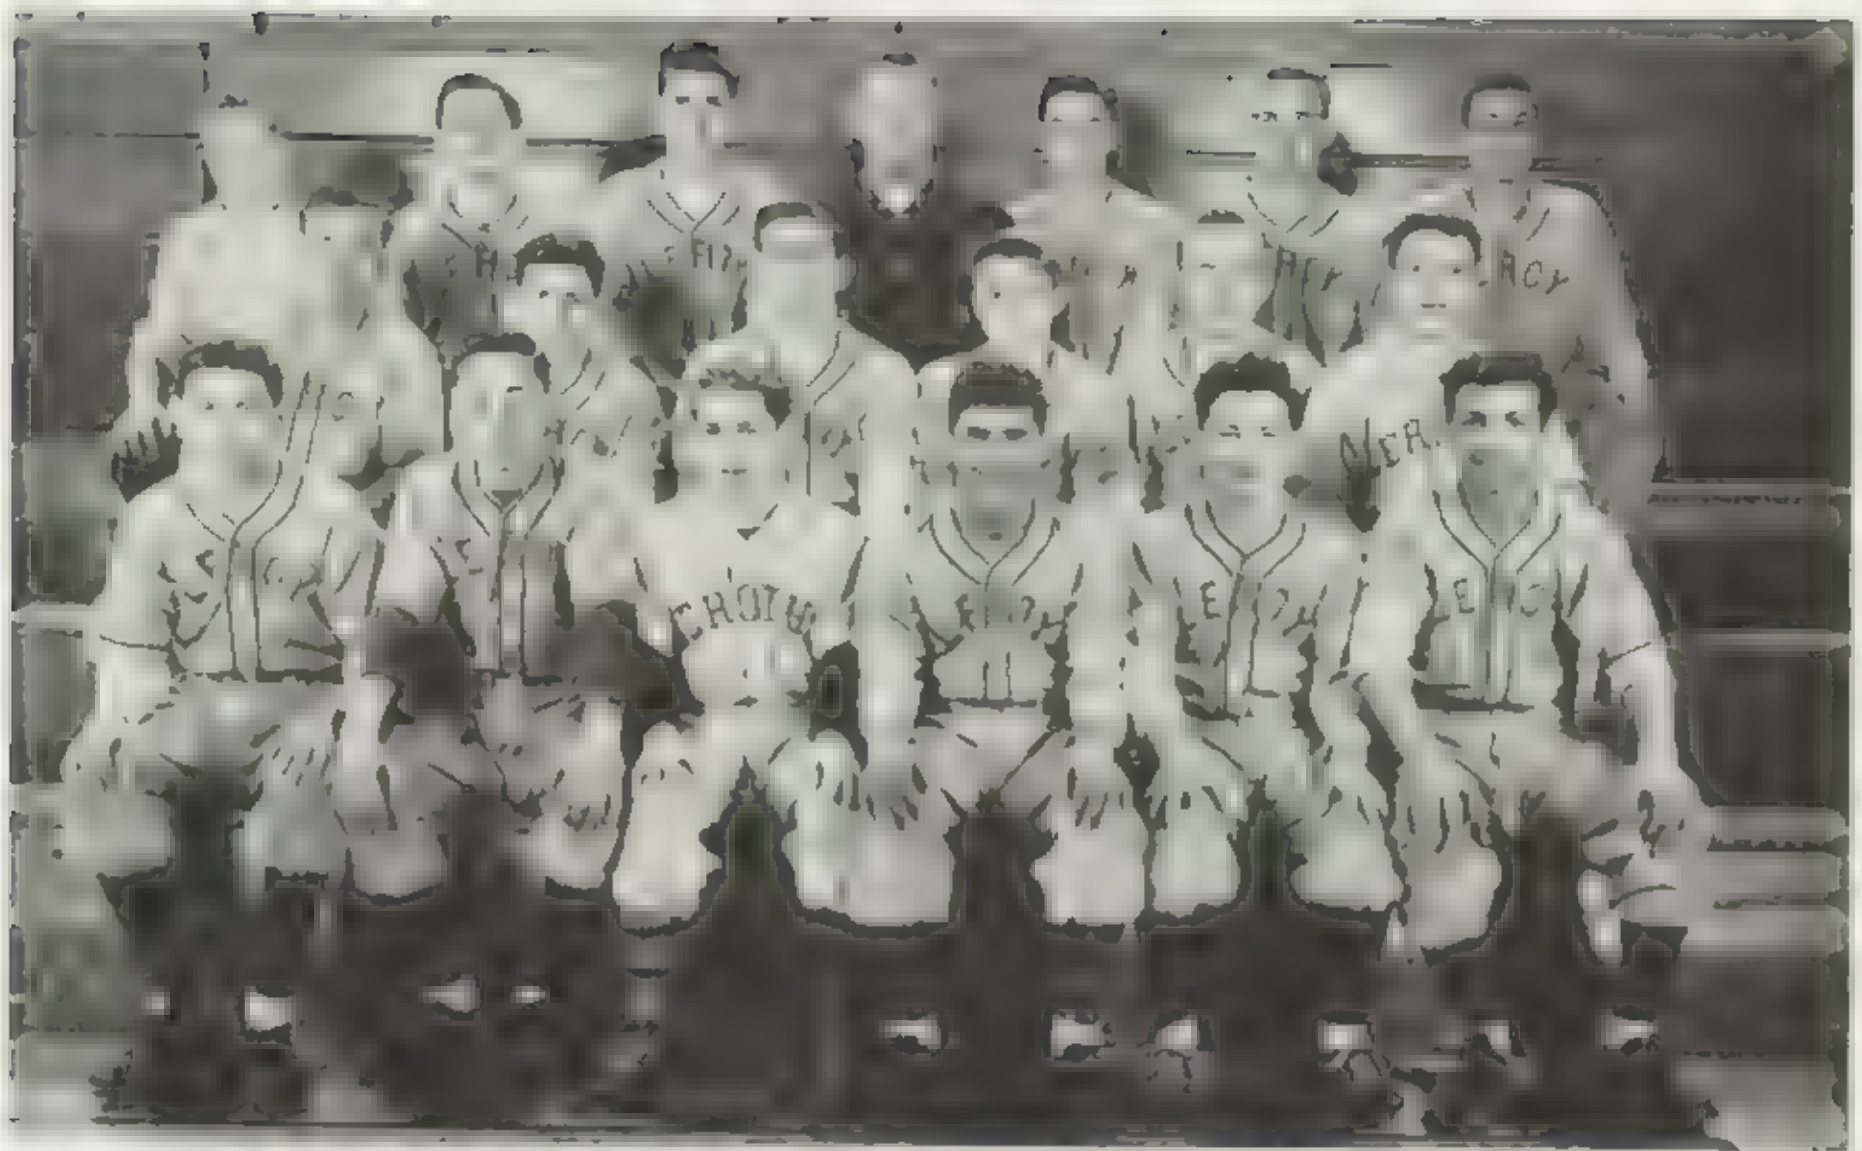

The baseball team struggled against the forces most of this year. The principal opponent was the weather which rained out games ... me, forcing the team to play nearly every day in late May. The second struggle occurred ...

in June against Oakfield in a game deciding the league championship. Both Oakfield and Le Roy had finished the regular season in a tie for first place; and in the play-off game, in spite of a well pitched game by Satch O'Geen and tight fielding by the rest of the squad, the boys lost 1-0. The year was, however, a real success; the regular season record of 7 won and 4 lost attests to this. In addition prospects for next year look good indeed with Mr. Jay losing only four players through graduation and a highly successful JV team to choose replacements from.

Larkin Speaking Contest

The Larkin Speaking Contest is an annual affair, open to all juniors and seniors in the school. Its contestants, however, for the most part come straight from the rigors of public speaking class to demonstrate their newly-gained skills to the public.

This year's contest was a particularly close one. After considerable debate Allan Cohen was chosen as the winner of the boys' division with a talk on indecision and Sam Maloni, who spoke on a formula for peace, was awarded second place. In the female division Carol Nicholson's oration on friendship was adjudged the best, followed closely by Polly Mills' dissertation on languages.

Behind the scenes in both the speech class and the Larkin Contest was Miss Murnighan of the English faculty and the success of this year's contest was largely dependent upon her
